A WORLD OF POSSIBILITIES for your interior doors

Interior doors are a source of privacy, comfort and sound-reduction within the home. They provide essential openings to different sections of living spaces, while helping to define the aesthetic and personality of each room.

Summer has come to an end. While there may still be some warmer weather lingering, the reality is that most Canadians will soon move in from their patios to watch the beauty of fall from the warmth of their homes.

What better time than fall to tackle some long overdue interior renovations. One of our favourite fall projects is an interior door renovation. New interior doors not only raise the architectural profile of a home, but they give homeowners tons of creative control over the look and décor of each room. JELD-WEN offers a wide breadth of interior door materials and configuration options, as well as ProCore® sound reduction technology in a variety of moulded door panels.

MOULDED WOOD COMPOSITE DOORS

JELD-WEN interior moulded wood composite doors offer the best of two worlds: style and substance. Not only can homeowners choose the architectural style that works best with their home, but they can also choose between the classic look of wood in either a wood grain or smooth finish. Our moulded wood composite doors come primed and ready to paint so homeowners can customize their doors to suit their taste.
