2026-2027 Middle School Uniform Guidelines

Uniforms can be purchased through our PG store on the French Toast website, PG Store on the Lands End website, or from the Gently Used Uniform Sale in August.

Tops (all tops must have a circle Porter-Gaud logo)
Polo ➔ Solid white, black, garnet, or gray with the circle Porter-Gaud logo ➔ Long or short sleeve If students wear an official Porter-Gaud sweater or sweatshirt, they are not required to wear a polo. However, if students wish to remove their sweater or sweatshirt at any point throughout the day, they should wear the required polo underneath. The shoulders and torso must be covered.

Bottoms
Pants ➔ Khaki ➔ Black Shorts ➔ Khaki	Pants and shorts do not have to be purchased from French Toast or Lands End. Cargo pants/shorts, AFTCO shorts, work pants, and khaki/black colored jeans are not appropriate.
Skirt/Skort ➔ Plaid, gray, or khaki ➔ All skirts must be purchased through French Toast and Lands End.

Dresses

Tennis Dress

- ➔ Garnet (with Porter-Gaud logo)
- ➔ These dresses are no longer available for purchase through French Toast but can be purchased at the gently used uniform sale.

Outerwear

Sweater

- ➔ Official Porter-Gaud sweaters

Sweatshirts

- ➔ Official Porter-Gaud sweatshirts (hoodie, pullover, quarter-zip, long sleeve t-shirts)

Uniform tops, including all outerwear, must retain their original, factory-finished neckline. Cutting, slit-opening, fraying, or otherwise altering the collar to change the fit or style is prohibited.

Coats and jackets worn outside of buildings (e.g., during community, recess or while transitioning between buildings) do not need to be Porter-Gaud branded; however, they should not be overly loud, distracting, or display prominent branding or messaging.

Leggings, tights

Leggings and tights may be worn under skirts, shorts, and dresses if desired. They must be solid black, white, or gray in color. Sweatpants, yoga pants, and pajama pants may not be worn.

Footwear

All students must wear shoes that are both closed-toe and closed-heel (i.e., with a back). Shoes must provide full coverage of the toes and heel for safety and support, especially during daily community and recess. Not Permitted: Sandals, flip-flops, slides, clogs without backs, crocs or any footwear exposing the toes or heel.

Hats

Hats and headwear are prohibited everywhere on campus, indoors and outdoors, except for religious or cultural purposes.

Spirit Days

Every Friday is Porter-Gaud Spirit Day. All students may choose to wear official Porter-Gaud gear: jerseys, polos, t-shirts, etc., which represent an athletic team, academic organization, community service project, or fine arts event to show their Porter-Gaud spirit. These items are worn with uniform bottoms. Spirit wear can be purchased at various points throughout the year from the PGPA, athletic teams, and student organizations.

Shirts that are sold by vendors other than Lands End & French Toast purchased by athletic teams are considered spirit wear. They may only be worn on Fridays as part of spirit dress.

Physical Education Uniforms

All items must have the PG logo except for black performance skorts from French Toast.

Grades 5-6:

PE uniforms must be purchased on the French Toast or Lands End website.

- ➔ Grades 5 and 6 will wear their PE uniforms for the entire school day on their designated PE days.
  - ◆ PE T-shirt (Performance, Active, or Essential)
  - ◆ Black short with logo or black skort
  - ◆ Gray or black sweatpants with PG logo
  - ◆ All students are required to wear tennis shoes on PE days.

Grades: 7-8:

- ➔ For Grades 7 and 8, PE uniforms will be distributed on the first day of PE classes by the school and can only be worn during PE classes. Additional sets/items may be purchased through French Toast.
  - ◆ All students are required to wear athletic footwear to PE classes.

- PE T-shirt (Performance)
- Black short with logo

Non-uniform days

Occasionally, students are allowed to wear non-uniform clothing on designated days, but rules concerning coverage, length, and repair outlined in the student handbook still apply. All logos and writing on clothing must be appropriate for a school setting. The Head and/or Assistant Head of Middle School will share further rules and expectations on non-uniform days as they occur throughout the year.
