2026-2027 Upper School Uniform Guidelines

Uniforms can be purchased through our PG store on the French Toast website, PG Store on the Lands End website, or from the Gently Used Uniform Sale in August. All Classes must fully transition to the current uniform guidelines. Lands End items purchased prior to 2022, including plaid skirts and polo shirts with a horizontal Porter-Gaud logo, are not permitted.

Tops (all tops must have a circle Porter-Gaud logo)
Polo ➔ Solid white, black, garnet, or gray with the circle Porter-Gaud logo ➔ Long or short sleeve If students wear an official Porter-Gaud sweater or sweatshirt, they are not required to wear a polo. However, if students wish to remove their sweater or sweatshirt at any point throughout the day, they should wear the required polo underneath. The shoulders and torso must be covered.

Bottoms
Pants ➔ Khaki ➔ Black Shorts ➔ Khaki	Pants and shorts do not have to be purchased from French Toast or Lands End. Cargo pants/shorts, AFTCO shorts, work pants, and khaki/black colored jeans are not appropriate.
Skirt/Skort ➔ Plaid, gray, or khaki ➔ All skirts must be purchased through French Toast and Lands End.

Outerwear

Sweater

➔ Official Porter-Gaud sweaters

Jacket

➔ Official Porter-Gaud jackets (letterman, etc.)

Sweatshirts

➔ Official Porter-Gaud sweatshirts (hoodie, pullover, quarter-zip)

Uniform tops, including all outerwear, must retain their original, factory-finished neckline. Cutting, slit-opening, fraying, or otherwise altering the collar to change the fit or style is not prohibited. T-shirt style hoodies or long-sleeve t-shirts are not allowed as outerwear.

Leggings, tights

Leggings and tights may be worn under skirts, shorts, and dresses if desired. They must be solid black, white, or gray in color. Sweatpants, yoga pants, and pajama pants may not be worn.

Footwear

Only fully enclosed shoes are allowed. Footwear must provide complete coverage of the foot; sandals, slides, clogs, and backless styles (including Crocs) are prohibited.

Hats

Hats and headwear are prohibited everywhere on campus, indoors and outdoors, except for religious or cultural purposes.

Spirit Days

Every Friday is Porter-Gaud Spirit Day. All students may choose to wear official Porter-Gaud gear: jerseys, polos, t-shirts, etc., which represent an athletic team, academic organization, community service project, or fine arts event to show their Porter-Gaud spirit. These items are worn with uniform bottoms. Spirit wear can be purchased at various points throughout the year from the PGPA, athletic teams, and student organizations.

Polo shirts that are sold by vendors other than Lands End & French Toast purchased by athletic teams are considered spirit wear. They may only be worn on Fridays as part of spirit dress.

Seniors only – official college sweatshirts are permitted

Physical Education (9th Grade)

Ninth-grade students taking PE/Health will receive one set of PE uniform items at the beginning of the course. All students are required to wear athletic footwear to PE classes. Additional uniforms/items may be purchased through French Toast:

- PE T-Shirt (Performance)
- Black short with logo

Non-uniform days

Occasionally, students are allowed to wear non-uniform clothing on designated days, but rules concerning coverage, length, and repair outlined in the student handbook still apply. All logos and writing on clothing must be appropriate for a school setting.

Expectations for Senior Spring Dress, which begins at the end of April, will be detailed each spring before its implementation.
